
NEW SEEDS

JOURNAL OF THE INTERNATIONAL THOMAS MERTON SOCIETY

VOLUME ONE

NUMBER 4.

1st. April. 1990.

Dear Friends,

Let me begin by giving thanks, someone out there really is reading 'New Seeds' and is prepared to comment on what they read; I was beginning to think that no-one was interested. My thanks go to Muriel Manning who was our first 'Correspondent': a free copy of 'No Man is an Island' is on its way to you! An extract from Muriel's letter is inside.

I include inside also are extracts from a letter which I think, perhaps puts into words what many people feel, that is, that we are being a little too narrow in what we include in 'New Seeds' and that what we do include tends towards the more academically minded among us. In an effort to accommodate more people and their interests, in subsequent issues, I shall strive to include articles of a less intellectual nature and which cover what might be called the broader spectrum of spiritual interests. Of course this will depend totally on the availability of material supplied by our members.

With this in mind, if anyone would like to recommend a particular book, drop me a line with details and I will see what I can do: I may even be able to obtain copies at a discount?

Yours sincerely,

Stephen J. Hotchen, General Secretary.
